W. J. HEATH, Chm.

FIRE.—On Tuesday morning, a little after three o'clock, a fire broke out in Maxwell & Prescott's warehouse, on Water street, near the forks of the river, which was occupied by T. Pardee, which, despite the efforts of the Fire Companies, consumed the warehouse and most of its contents, together with the stores of Hamilton & Day, J. & L. M. Strail, and the Canal Grocery, occupied by P. Deleice, at the junction of Lake and Water streets. Many of the goods from the stores were saved. In the warehouse some seven-ton or twenty thousand bushels of wheat were destroyed, besides large quantities of goods and a horse. It is not known positively how the fire originated, but is thought to have been the work of an incendiary. The clerk did not sleep in the warehouse as usual. There was no insurance on the warehouse, which we believe cost between $1000 and $5000, and the loss will fall heavily on its worthy owners.

The buildings occupied by Hamilton & Day and J. & L. M. Strail, and insured for $1000 in the National Insurance Co., and $500 in the North Western, which covered the loss. Hamilton & Day's loss on goods was about $7000, insured $3000 in the Pelican and Hartford Insurance Cos. Messrs. Strail's loss on goods was about $6000; partially insured.

The building on the Point occupied by Peter Deleice as a Grocery and owned by A. Garrett, no insurance, loss $200. A small building owned by Blasey and used as a grocery store, torn down, loss $150.

The building occupied by Wm. Emerson as a shoe store, considerably injured. —Daily Democrat.

AFFECTING INCIDENT.—A camp correspondent of the Louisville Courier communicates the following:

CAMP MONTEREY, Oct. 7, 1846.

Hungry and cold I crept to one corner of the fort to get in the sunshine, and at the same time to shelter myself from the bombs that were flying thick around me. I looked out, and some two or three hundred yards from the fort I saw a Mexican female carrying water and food to the wounded men of both armies. I saw her lift the head of one poor fellow—give him water, and then take the handkerchief from her own head and bind up his wounds; attending one or two others in the same way, she went back for more food and water. As she was returning I heard the crack of one or two guns, and she, poor good creature, fell; after a few struggles all was still—she was dead. I turned my eyes to heaven and thought "Oh God! and is this war!" I cannot but believe that the shot was an accidental one. The next day, passing into another fort, I passed her dead body. It was lying on its back with the bread and broken gourd containing a few drops of water. We buried her amidst showers of grape and round shot, occasionally dodging a shell or twelve-pounder, and expecting every moment to have another grave to dig for one of ourselves.

J. R. B.

The Mississippi steamer Tom Corwin struck a log and sunk on the 2nd inst., and a drove of cattle which was on board were drowned. The whole a total loss.

DROWNED.—A man, supposed to be named Madden, from Lockport, fell into the river last night off Clarke St. Bridge, which was open at the time. He was warned of his danger by a person standing near, nevertheless, he persisted in attempting to cross. The rope was stretched across the passage way, so that no blame is to be attached to the Bridge tender. A coroner's jury returned a verdict last evening in accordance with these facts, the body having been recovered fifteen minutes subsequently to the occurrence of the accident. —Chicago Jour.

A citizen of Monterey in a letter dated the 20th Sept., at Saltillo, attributes to Ampudia, individually, the loss of Monterey. He says that he begged, and crawled upon the ground in order to save his carcass—after the capitulation, he carried his infancy so far as to invite Taylor and his officers to a barbecue; and that Otazo held the bridges of the "Yankees" horses while they mounted.

BRITISH TARIFF.—Which is the British Tariff reader—the one which in detail is precisely like the Tariff by which Great Britain has for ninety years granted a monopoly of her market to her own manufactures? or, the one which in every essential particular is diametrically opposite to any Great Britain ever had? The former, undoubtedly. That, now, is the very tariff which the Democratic party repealed at the last session of Congress, and substituted instead one like the last mentioned of the above. The Whigs say they go for a "Repeal of the British tariff!" They are always behind the times. The "British tariff" was repealed some time last spring. This is something like their Oregon patriotism. They were opposed to Oregon, until they learned that there was no more controversy about it, and then they were loud for "the whole!" This was not the first time, nor will it be the last time they were for their "holes." —Wabash Democrat.

It is stated by the Washington Union, that General Scott has issued orders for the release of Gen. La Vega and his associates, they having been exchanged for Captain Carpenter and the crew of the Truxton.

DR. WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.—The progress of Science.—The time has come when such diseases as lung affections, pulmonary consumption, throat diseases and coughs, can be cured in the first stages. We admit that there are incurable stages in these diseases, but what is generally called incurable is now easily remedied. The great wonder of this age has removed hundreds of these difficulties, where every thing else seemed to fail. Should we discountenance a worthy physician because he was unfortunate in losing a patient? Should we condemn a remedy because some one in an incurable state, has taken it and has died? Should the inevitable death of one cause thousands to neglect the use of means that have rescued hundreds from an early grave? Let the reader answer. Hundreds that now breathe with clear lungs, have been given up by physicians as incurable. Those that wish can be furnished with names and testimony to the above facts, which will satisfy the most incredulous.
